

Members at Large AGM Report 2011-2012

Culture

Vol. 5.1 Culture – été

11 pages

Ft: A word by the new president, a piece by CRHS et de l'IRSC issue, two pieces on two awards, one CASCA member contribution on teaching and two booknotes.

Vol. 5.2 Culture – automne

14 pages

On time for the AAA. 100 copies color printed distributed at the CASCA booth (473,70$).

Ft: four contributions from Montreal and Canadian anthropologists (academics and practicing) and four booknotes.

Vol. 6.1 Culture – Spring

New design – Thanks to Michel Bouchard

On time for the CASCA Annual meeting.

Ft: Seven contributions on UAlberta profile, Quebec's department profile, Quebec students strikes, WCAA on small societies in a global world, and two booknotes.

Vol. 6.2 Culture –To come

Give more place to anthropologists (departments and practicing) activities. With Karli who work on the departmental directory project in order to communicate with every departments/groups and ask them to put us on their mailing list so we can publish their activities.

Salisbury

Review 5 applications and vote for Josh Lalor who works on the Waterford Crystal workers, Ireland.

CASCA Welcome Reception at the AAA

Vendredi 18 novembre, Musée Pointe-à-Callière Museum

About 200 persons

Museum rental: 2540.04

Caterer: 4289.28

Total: 6829.32

Budget: 7000.00 (Thanks to the Executive and Firelight Group)

Balance: 170.68

Christopher Fletcher

Professeur agrégé
Département de médecine sociale et préventive
Faculté de médecine
1050, avenue de la Médecine, Bureau 2433
Pavillon Ferdinand-Vandry
Université Laval
Québec (Québec),
Canada, G1V 0A6
418-656-2131 poste 8603

christopher.fletcher@fmed.ulaval.ca

Nathalie Boucher

PhD, Études urbaines, INRS-UCS
M.A., Anthropologie, Université Laval

Membre francophone officielle, Société canadienne d'anthropologie

Laboratoire de recherche VESPA

Institut national de la recherche scientifique –
Centre Urbanisation Culture Société
514 499-4000 poste 8254

Nathalie.boucher@ucs.inrs.ca